

The Thesis Publication Grant for UI & Non-UI Students (Batch-1)

We offer for graduate thesis publication that associates with the following topics;

- philosophical and ethical foundations;
- ethics and development
- issues in operationalizing the capability approach;
- capability measurement and empirical analysis;
- human rights;
- sustainability;
- participation and public deliberation;
- civil society;
- health and disability;
- education;
- economics and human development;
- formal and informal institutions & practices;
- poverty and inequality;
- gender;
- values, religion, culture and freedom;
- Inclusion & exclusion/discrimination;
- justice

The publication time should no more than 2 years from graduation. There will be a maximum of 4 grants, with each grant amounted to Rp 2.500.000.-

Mechanism:

1. The candidates should submit their papers (copy of journal in where their papers are published) and letter of interest, to the committee, email to HDCA2012grant@gmail.com between the following period: February 15 – October 15, 2013.
2. The committee will select the grant recipients according to their assessment, and announce it in November 15, 2013.
3. The recipients for this grant will receive the grant in December 2013.

Enrolled Criteria:

Graduate students from University in Indonesia with major of Economics or alumni with no more of two (2) years graduation.